

Total Immersion English

Give your English a break!

Without meaningful opportunities to practice, language learning can be hard work. That's why the TUM Language Center is offering intensive weekend courses, giving you the chance to practice and learn both inside and outside the classroom.

you will practice your language skills in the kitchen and dining room...

as well as all aspects of your daily routine for a whole weekend.

As well as language input and supervision from expert language trainers, with opportunities for individual and group practice...

in social interaction with your fellow course participants...

The next two day course runs from 15.00 on Friday 30.11.2018 to 15.00 on Sunday 02.12.2018. We will hold an information meeting at 16.30 on Wednesday 14.11.2018 in Room 0243 at the English Writing Center on the main Munich Campus, Arcisstr. 21.

The course is open to all TUM students and staff and organized by the Language Center, keeping the cost for you to an absolute minimum. For just 65 Euros per day you can enjoy comfortable and well-equipped self-catering facilities at Magnetsried near Lake Starnberg, while actively participating in and receiving intensive language training.

Seminars will be spread over two days and 4 sessions. We will cover Debating, Academic Communication, and Social Interaction, Report Writing, as well as other aspects of academic and general English that are important to you. In the evenings we will cook together, and the program will include a film screening with introduction. Successful completion of the course is worth 2 ECTS points.
